

Martha E. Fisher

7300 Ann Cabell Lane, Mechanicsville, VA 23111 • 804-380-1176 • mefisher@email.wm.edu

Education

The College of William and Mary

MA Ed Secondary Science, May 2013

- 34 credit hours, 4.0/4.0 GPA
- Primary practicum experience in New Kent High School in New Kent, VA with additional practicum experiences in a high needs school setting in Hopewell, VA.

The College of William and Mary

BS Biology, May 2012

- 3.98/4.0 Cumulative GPA
- Summa Cum Laude
- Dean's List 2008-2012, Jennings Scholarship 2011

Teaching Related Experience

Student Teacher

September 2012 – Present

New Kent High School ▪ 7365 Egypt Road, New Kent, VA 23124

- Teach two general and one collaborative 10th grade biology course
- Design lessons to meet state standards and promote student learning
- Assess student progress to determine student needs and instructional effectiveness
- Coordinate with co-teacher to differentiate instruction and accommodate for student IEPs
- Organize hands-on, engaging learning experiences to motivate students and deepen student learning of science

Substitute Teacher

January 2013 – Present

New Kent High School ▪ 7365 Egypt Road, New Kent, VA 23124

TCT Intern

May 2010 – August 2010

Science Museum of Virginia ▪ 2500 West Broad Street, Richmond, VA 23220

- Conducted a hands-on exploratory activity with children of all ages and adults
- Trained adolescent volunteers and adult staff to assist with and lead activities
- Collaborated with colleagues to research and develop a comprehensive exhibit proposal

Professional Memberships

National Science Teachers Association (NSTA), 2012- Present, William and Mary Chapter
Virginia Association of Science Teachers (VAST), 2012 –Present, Attended VAST Professional Development Institute in November 2012

Virginia Teaching License, Pending July 2013